✠ FROM THE PASTOR ✠

AMDG

Dear OSJ Family,

In the meaningful rituals of our Roman Catholic tradition, various elements—the scriptures to be read, the psalms to be sung, the communion to be shared—call for many gifts from many different people acting together. That is when the Church best celebrates liturgy with great reverence, dignity and beauty. We strive for those elements here at OSJ at each Mass. By the nature of our baptism, all of us are called to minister to one another in our sacred worship. With that, I ask that as the New Year begins and resolutions are made, you please consider joining one of our liturgical ministries at OSJ. We need you, and it is your right and privilege to serve! Please consider serving in the following liturgical ministries:

Lectors: Lectors proclaim the Word of God and are an integral part of all liturgies. Individuals interested in this ministry must be in at least the fifth grade and must be able to proclaim loudly and clearly so that all can hear and learn from God’s word.

Altar Servers: An altar server assists the Presider in the sanctuary at all liturgical celebrations throughout the year. This ministry is open to all youth in fifth grade and above as well as all of our adults.

Liturgy Committee: The Liturgy Committee works closely with Sister Asunta, our Liturgy Coordinator, and collaborates on the planning and coordinating of all the various ministries involved in our parish worship.

Extraordinary Ministers of Communion: Extraordinary Ministers of Holy Communion assist the priest each week with the distribution of the Body and Blood of Christ. We welcome persons 15 years of age or older, and a fully initiated Catholic in order to participate in this ministry.

Hospital Ministers: These Ministers of Holy Communion administer the Body and Blood of Christ to our sick sisters and brothers at Pennsylvania Hospital (the hospital which our priests cover and visit frequently). We welcome persons 18 years of age or older, and a fully initiated Catholic in order to participate in this ministry.

Ushers: It is the usher's ministry to greet people warmly, to help people sit together, to pass out hymnals, song sheets, to care for any needs (if someone gets sick, or other emergencies), to take up the collection, to help with good order at communion and to distribute bulletins.

Environment: The Environment Committee is responsible for seasonal decorations in our worship space, the courtyard, and the Walnut Street patio. They also help with large parish gatherings such as St. Ignatius Day and St. Joseph Day.

Hospitality Ministers: These generous persons organize, execute and promote the coffee hour socials that follow the 9:30 am and 11:30 am Masses.

Music Ministry: Our parish stands firm in the belief that beautiful sacred music fosters and enhances our common prayer. Those who volunteer for Music Ministry include choir members, cantors, and instrumentalists. Training is provided for all Music Ministers on an individual basis and in group settings.

Training for all of these ministries is provided on a regular basis. If you are interested in sharing your talents in the liturgical ministries please contact Sister Asunta Thanh, acj at liturgy@oldstjoseph.org and specifically for music, please contact Pat Montenegro at music@oldstjoseph.org.

Thank you for your kind consideration and God bless!

Message from the Ignatian Solidarity Network

As the new United States President and Congress prepare to begin their elected roles in the New Year, immigrant members of our communities are experiencing marginalization. On Thursday, January 19, The Ignatian Solidarity Network invites Ignatian and Jesuit network communities to join in "Prayers of Light" for our immigrant brothers and sisters. We offer these symbols of light as signs of solidarity for those who may be forced into the shadows of our nation. Through action and solidarity, we hope to illuminate the dignity of our immigrant brothers and sisters and the value of each individual's contribution to this country. ## ✠ SOCIAL JUSTICE ✠

Thank You from Gesu School: Old St. Joseph's Giving Tree

To the Parishioners of Old St. Joseph's:

On behalf of Gesu School's students and families, thank you for sharing Christmas joy through this year's giving tree. Our community is so grateful for your kindness over many years, and we were again overwhelmed by your generosity. We extend a special thanks to Charles Capaldi and the Old St. Joseph's Social Justice Committee for their efforts.

✝ YOUNG ADULT COMMUNITY ✝

We are delighted to share that Santa stopped at Gesu on December 21 to deliver these special gifts. Our students in grades Pre-K through 2 were thrilled to unwrap new books. During these cold winter days, the much-needed hats, mittens, and scarves will keep our youngest students warm. We invite you to see students' smiles as they opened the gifts by viewing photos on Gesu School's Facebook page: www.facebook.com/gesuschool.

Located just three miles from Old St. Joseph's in North Philadelphia, Gesu School serves 450 students in Pre-K through 8th grade, including students who reside in the three poorest zip codes in the city. Inspired by the Jesuit and IHM traditions of social justice, faith, hope and love, Gesu School strives, without selective admissions, to provide a quality, innovative education for its neighbor children to empower them to break the cycle of poverty and violence.

You are welcome to learn more about Gesu by visiting our school or our website, www.gesuschool.org. To arrange a tour, learn about volunteer opportunities, or discover other ways to give, please contact our Development Office at 215 763 9077.

Your generosity makes a difference in children's lives. We wish you peace and blessings in the New Year!

Sincerely,

Bryan Carter, President and CEO, Gesu School

Sr. Ellen Convey, IHM, Principal, Gesu School
