Today's Gospel Reading: Matthew 13:44-52

Jesus said to his disciples: "The kingdom of heaven is like a treasure buried in a field, which a person finds and hides again, and out of joy goes and sells all that he has and buys that field. Again, the kingdom of heaven is like a merchant searching for fine pearls. When he finds a pearl of great price, he goes and sells all that he has and buys it. Again, the kingdom of heaven is like a net thrown into the sea, which collects fish of every kind. When it is full they haul it ashore and sit down to put what is good into buckets. What is bad they throw away. Thus, it will be at the end of the age. The angels will go out and separate the wicked from the righteous and throw them into the fiery furnace, where there will be wailing and grinding of teeth.

"Do you understand all these things?" They answered, "Yes." And he replied, "Then every scribe who has been instructed in the kingdom of heaven is like the head of a household who brings from his storeroom both the new and the old."

Our audio hearing loop has been replaced by a new hearing assistance system which requires a smartphone to operate. Instructions including the needed QR symbols, Wi-Fi address, password, and required software app download can be found on the bulletin boards in the church entryways.

THIS WEEK IN JESUIT HISTORY: Week of July 30

History: July 30, 1556 - Ignatius asked Fr. Polanco to go to the Pope and obtain for him the pope's blessing and plenary indulgence. Polanco didn't think Ignatius was that close to death, so delayed, and thus never got it in time.

Saint: July 31 St Ignatius Loyola "Do everything for the glory of God." "Men crucified to the world and to whom the world itself is crucified, such would the rule of our life have us to be. New men, I say, who have put off their affections to put on Christ, dead to themselves to live to justice; who, with St. Paul in labors, in sleepless nights, in fastings, in innocence, in knowledge, in long-sufferings, in kindness, in the Holy Spirit, in unaffected love, in the word of truth, show themselves ministers of God; and by the armor of justice on the right hand and on the left, by honor and dishonor, by evil report and good report, by good success finally and ill success, press forward with great strides to their heavenly country, and by all means possible and with all zeal urge on others also, ever looking for God's greater glory. This is the sum and aim of our Institute.

Ignatian Spirituality: Universal Apostolic Preferences (fourth of nine installments) Second Apostolic Preference: Walking with the excluded. We see the gap between rich and poor widen across the world, and we hear weekly reports of hundreds perishing as they try to reach a new home. Political leaders have kindled hatred and erected walls between rich and poor, young and old, those at home and those who have to migrate. The reality of children who have been abused, physically or sexually, is also painfully and personally present to us. Jesus suffers and is crucified in and with His people, especially the little ones. He takes the hands of the excluded, abused and vulnerable. He says to them "Come, inherit the Kingdom". We are all God's children.

Dear Parishioners and Friends of OSJ:

I have an important announcement for the parish that will come as a surprise. I say this because of our recent history of abrupt, even contentious transfers of Jesuits assigned to the parish. Today, I can inform you about a transfer under happier circumstances.

One of the creative tensions Jesuits live with is absolute commitment to the mission he is given and absolute detachment and availability for a different mission.

From the first day, a parish isn't yours. It belongs to the community and your job is to nurture and guide it so that it can thrive when you leave it. Well, that time has come for Fr. Holland.

We have all benefited from his pastoral and administrative expertise, his humor and hard work. The Bishop of Bridgeport knows him well and has asked Fr. Provincial to mission him to become the pastor of St. Michael the Archangel Parish in Greenwich, Connecticut.

The situation there and in the surrounding parishes is daunting and speaks of the confidence the bishop has in Fr. Holland as he seeks to restructure the presence of the Church in the city in the next few years.

This is also a vote of confidence for our community. We will need to make some adjustments in the next months, but with your generosity, the steady work of the Pastoral and Finance Councils, and a few Jesuit celebrants from St. Joseph's University, our parish will continue to thrive.

We are still going to have some time together. Fr. Holland's last Sunday with us will be August 27th. We will gather that day after the 11:30am Mass for a special reception to thank Paul for the love and labor he has shared with us and to wish him well as he begins a new chapter in his life.

Thank you for your ongoing devotion to OSJ. Let us continue to pray for one another and for our parish community.

Francis T. Hannafey, S.J.
Pastor
