2023-24 Music Season

Dear Friends,

Welcome to a new season of ecclesiastical music at Old St. Joseph's Church! I am pleased to share with you details of our upcoming music--our week-to-week music, special liturgical presentations, and concerts. We hope you can join us regularly for these outstanding presentations of music, offered to the glory of God and for your spiritual enrichment.

We have an exciting year scheduled for 2023-24. Highlights of our season will include our parish choir, the Schola Cantorum, presenting our annual All Souls' Requiem Mass--this year a music setting by Josef Rheinberger, a return performance by the Fairfield University Glee Club, our annual parish Lessons and Carols Service, and a classical guitar concert performed by students at the Curtis Institute of Music during our Spring season.

Details about these special music offerings as well as our weekly music are listed here. Hoping to see you often, dear friends, throughout this season!

Faithfully yours,

Mark Bani, D.M.A.

Director of Music and Organist
