Today's Gospel: Luke 5:1-11

While the crowd was pressing in on Jesus and listening to the word of God, he was standing by the Lake of Gennesaret. He saw two boats there alongside the lake; the fishermen had disembarked and were washing their nets. Getting into one of the boats, the one belonging to Simon, he asked him to put out a short distance from the shore. Then he sat down and taught the crowds from the boat. After he had finished speaking, he said to Simon, "Put out into deep water and lower your nets for a catch." Simon said in reply, "Master, we have worked hard all night and have caught nothing, but at your command I will lower the nets." When they had done this, they caught a great number of fish and their nets were tearing. They signaled to their partners in the other boat to come to help them. They came and filled both boats so that the boats were in danger of sinking. When Simon Peter saw this, he fell at the knees of Jesus and said, "Depart from me, Lord, for I am a sinful man." For astonishment at the catch of fish they had made seized him and all those with him, and likewise James and John, the sons of Zebedee, who were partners of Simon. Jesus said to Simon, "Do not be afraid; from now on you will be catching men." When they brought their boats to the shore, they left everything and followed him.

SAVE THE DATE: On Sunday February 9, Old Saint Joseph's Adult Education Committee will host a discussion of the Book by Amy-Jill Levine, The Misunderstood Jew: The Church and the Scandal of the Jewish Jesus (HarperOne, 2009).

Levine is Professor of New Testament and Jewish Studies at Hartford International University for Religion and Peace, Professor of New Testament and Jewish Studies at Hartford International University for Religion and Peace Professor Emeritus at Vanderbilt Divinity School and Department of Jewish Studies.

Her work, written for the laity, helps Christians and Jews understand the "Jewishness" of Jesus so that their appreciation of him deepens and a greater interfaith dialogue can take place. Levine's humor and informed truth-telling provokes honest conversation and debate about how Christians and Jews should understand Jesus, the New Testament, and each other.

The book is available at Barnes and Noble (including eBook and audiobook) and Amazon (including Kindle and audiobook).

Please plan to join us to discuss the Jewish man Jesus of Nazareth, and Catholic-Jewish relations from the points of view of both the Jewish and the Catholic faithful.

The discussion will be in person at Old Saint Joseph's. We look forward to seeing you on February 9 at 1:00 PM in Barbelin Hall!

MUSIC at OSJ

Our music director and organist, Mark Bani, continues to play the 12:00 Noon organ recital at Macy's (13th and Market) each Friday at 12:00 Noon. Recitals will continue up through early March. The Wanamaker Organ is the largest fully functioning organ in the world. Those who wish to hear Mark are warmly invited to do so on the remaining Fridays before Macy's closes: Feb. 14, 21, 28, March 7. And all are invited, following each recital (12:00 - 12:45 PM), to come up to the organ console located on the second floor of the store where Mark will give a brief history of the organ. It is quite magnificent to behold the organ console from which the music is played with its over 450 controls and 6 keyboards. Mark asks our prayers that this treasure will continue to be heard through whatever lies ahead for the Grand Court. St. Cecilia, pray for us.

The Care for Creation Committee, OSJ's LGBTQ Prayer Group, and Women, Faith and Fellowship are jointly sponsoring a Pre-Lenten Potluck Vegetarian Luncheon on February 23 after the 11:30 mass in Barbelin Hall. Please mark your calendars. We are inviting parishioners to contribute their favorite vegetarian dishes to the potluck and to share their recipes with the other attendees. If you are interested in making a dish, please contact Bill Stigliani at careforcreation@oldstjoseph.org.

The Friendship Circle is inviting all parishioners to our February Happy Hour on Wednesday, February 19th from 5:00 PM to 7:00 PM at PJ Clarke's at 601 Walnut Street. Come out and enjoy nice conversation and spirits with your fellow OSJ parishioners. If you will be attending this outing, email us at friendshipcircle@oldstjoseph.org.

THE LORD'S PRAYER

Our Father who art in Heaven,
Hallowed be thy name;
Thy kingdom come
Thy will be done
On earth as it is in heaven.
Give us this day our daily bread;
And forgive us our trespasses
As we forgive those who
trespass against us;
And lead us not into temptation
But deliver us from evil.
